PART 2—NOTICE AND ENQUIRIES*Notice under section 213 of the Act

2. The Legal Costs Committee has complied with the notice provisions of section 213 of the Act.

Enquiries and submission under section 213 of the Act

3. Before making the Solicitors Non-Contentious Probate Costs Determination 2005, the Legal Costs Committee—

- (a) reviewed the submission of the Law Society of Western Australia Inc received as a result of the notice given under section 213 of the Act;
- (b) reviewed the impact of movements in the Consumer Price Index for the period between March 2003 to March 2005 (inclusive); and
- (c) had regard to the impact of the Goods and Services Tax on the level of fees charged by Practitioners.

PART 3—REPORT OF COMMITTEE'S CONCLUSIONS*Maximum hourly rates changed—scale of costs amended

4. (1) The information gained as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3 satisfied the Legal Costs Committee that the existence of competition for the supply of legal services made it appropriate to continue to adopt hourly rates charged by practitioners as the basis for the rates used in the Solicitors Non-Contentious Probate Costs Determination 2005.

(2) It is the recommendation of the Legal Costs Committee as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3 that the hourly rates referred to in subclause 4 (1) are varied from the hourly rates used in the Solicitors Non-Contentious Probate Costs Determination 2003 published in the Government Gazette on 28 May 2003 pp1889 –1891. Those rates are set out in the Table to clause 5 of the Solicitors Non-Contentious Probate Costs Determination 2005.

(3) It is the further recommendation of the Committee that given the amendments to the scale of costs in the manner set out in the Table to clause 5 of the Solicitors Non-Contentious Probate Costs Determination 2005 are inclusive of any provision for the Goods and Services Tax, that from and including the date of that determination coming into operation, the Legal Practitioners (Effect on Costs of a New Tax System) (Goods and Services Tax) Determination 2000 published in the Government Gazette on 15 September 2000 p5411 will no longer apply to the Solicitors Non-Contentious Probate Costs Determination 2005 scale of costs from that date.

(4) The recommendations of the Legal Costs Committee are not intended to override the entitlement of a practitioner to make a written agreement as to costs with a client under the Legal Practice Act 2003.
